

Vendor Disclosure & Contract Checklist — Northern Territory

Your obligations as a seller.

Correct as at July 2026. General information only, not legal advice. Your contract should be prepared with a conveyancer or solicitor — this checklist helps you gather what they'll need, not replace their advice.

Section 1 — Understanding Your Disclosure Obligations

- ☐ [] Work with your conveyancer or solicitor to prepare a complete, accurate contract before marketing begins.
- ☐ [] Understand your buyer's cooling-off position. The NT's standard 4-business-day cooling-off period is generally penalty-free for the buyer if they withdraw within it, and can be extended, reduced, or waived by agreement — discuss with your agent and conveyancer how this affects your negotiation approach.

Section 2 — Information to Gather for Your Conveyancer/Solicitor

- ☐ [] Title details and any encumbrances — mortgages, easements, covenants affecting the land.
- ☐ [] Zoning and planning information.
- ☐ [] Known building work history and any relevant approvals.
- ☐ [] Body corporate records, if applicable — recent meeting minutes, financials, sinking fund details, and known disputes or special levies.
- ☐ [] Any known defects or issues you're aware of — including storm/cyclone-related repair history if relevant, given genuine buyer interest in this in the NT market.

Section 3 — Understanding Your Buyer's Financial Position

- ☐ [] Understand many buyers of new or house-and-land properties may access significant grants or duty waivers (the $50,000 HomeGrown Grant or the HLPE duty waiver) — this can meaningfully expand what buyers can afford for eligible new properties, which your agent should factor into pricing and marketing strategy.

Section 4 — Price Transparency

- ☐ [] Discuss price guide practices with your agent to ensure representations to prospective buyers are genuine and well-supported.
- ☐ [] Don't ask your agent to advertise a misleadingly low price to generate interest.

Section 5 — Final Checks Before Going to Market

- ☐ [] Confirm your contract is complete and reviewed by your conveyancer before your first open home.
- ☐ [] Cross-check the contract against your own knowledge of the property — flag any inconsistency with your conveyancer immediately.
- ☐ [] Keep a copy of everything provided to buyers.
